TRUST

Culture and Community

We're a community of connoisseurs with a deep history in the culture of sneakers and streetwear. Stadium Goods was founded to be a place where the products we love could be bought and sold safely, with a premium on trust and authenticity.

THE TEAM

Decades of Experience

Our commitment to authenticity starts with our staff. The employees of Stadium Goods are the most experienced and passionate in the business, with a wealth of expertise that in many cases reaches back decades. Every member of the team understands that our marketplace runs on trust, and that their knowledge and caring are the foundations of that trust.

THE TEAM

From working in the legendary sneaker shops of the '90s to founding and selling the sneaker shops of the '00s to partnering with some of the biggest brands in the world in the '10s, we've lived sneaker and streetwear culture since its earliest days.

Our mission is simple: We've built the kind of marketplace—built on trust, authenticity and passion—that we'd like to shop at.

PROCESS

Best in Class Inspection

In addition to our staff's unrivaled expertise, we also host the most thorough inspection process in the business. Unlike some marketplaces, we physically inspect our inventory and demand that our sellers have proof of purchase as well.

EXPERIENCE

Our staff are dedicated sneaker connoisseurs and the most experienced in the business.

EDUCATION

Our expert staff regularly research new products and counterfeiting techniques.

PHYSICAL INSPECTIONS

We examine material, stitching, and color by hand. Packaging is also inspected for authenticity.

SOURCING

We source our inventory from trusted suppliers.

TECHNOLOGY

We employ a variety of technologies to ensure chain of custody within our warehouses.

ON-SITE INVENTORY

All of our products are held in our warehouses to ensure quality control and prompt delivery.

TECHNOLOGY

Ensuring Your Security

In addition to physical inspections by our staff, we employ a variety of technical methods to ensure our inventory's authenticity. As innovators in the market, we are at the forefront of using emerging technology to identify counterfeit products.
